Golden Museum Revises Operating Hours Starting in October

GOLDEN, Colo., September 15, 2022 – Golden History Museum & Park will offer a revised and simplified set of operating hours starting in October.

To provide service to increasing numbers of visitors and residents, Golden History Museum & Park will be open five days per week, with the same hours each day, starting Tuesday, October 4, 2022.

Operating hours will be 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, throughout the fall and winter. Admission is always free, supported by contributions from private donors and in-person visitors.

Numerous educational programs for adults are conducted throughout the year, typically held in the evening. These events are free to museum members and offered at a nominal charge for non-members. Details for each program are listed at GoldenHistory.org/events. Advance registration is recommended due to limited seating.

Golden History Museum & Park engages and inspires visitors by preserving and sharing Golden's history.
